

LLOYD'S COTTAGES BOAT RENTAL POLICY

- Lloyd's Cottages may refuse, at its sole discretion, to rent to persons it feels are not qualified to operate the craft safely.
- Lloyd's Cottages may terminate, without refund, the rental of the craft, if in its sole judgement, the craft is operated unsafely or the renter violates any part of the rental agreement or rental policy.
- Rental agreement must be completed before departing dock.
- The rented craft shall not be operated under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Excessive drinking, use of illicit drugs or unruly behavior will not be tolerated.
- Absolutely no consumption or possession of alcohol by anyone under the age of 21.
- Boat occupancy must not exceed boat capacity.
- Infants and children do count toward maximum capacity of watercraft.
- All rentals include the required safety equipment.
- We recommend that you wear your life jacket. Children under 12 are required by law to wear a life jacket at all times.
- The rented craft must be operated within the PA Fish and Boat Commission Guidelines. More information can be found in the PA Boating Handbook.
- No one is permitted outside of the fence (railing) or on the sundeck while the boat is in motion.
- Absolutely no diving or jumping from railings, furniture or sundeck.
- Towing other boats, tubes, rafts, etc. is not permitted.
- Swimming is permitted only when the boat is anchored and motor is off.
- No running on boat or boat dock.
- Pets are allowed but please keep them off the furniture.
- Remember to pull up anchor and ladder before moving or returning to the dock.
- Absolutely no grills of any kind on the boat.
- Boat operators must be 21 years of age and have a valid driver's license.
- If any boat, motor and/or equipment is lost or damaged, it is the boat operator/renter's responsibility to pay full replacement cost.
- Payment is required for the time slot you have reserved. Due to scheduling it is important that you are on time, both leaving and returning to the dock. Late arrivals risk losing their reservation therefore it is imperative to notify us if you may be delayed.
